

TalentGO

Extra report for the candidate

More insight into own talent

Including questions for reflection

Add-on in Select

Give the gift of TalentGO

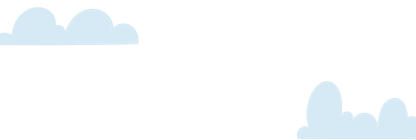

With the TalentGO, you give your candidates an extra, personal report during the selection process. Besides the assessment for the specific job, the candidate obtains more insight into their own talent. They are not required to do an additional test.

Selection Assessment

More insight

With the TalentGO, every candidate obtains more insight into their personal strengths: What are you good at and how can you use your strengths? With questions for reflection which help them prepare for an interview.

Selected or not?

Extra knowledge

With the TalentGO, a candidate has a tool to reflect on their own strengths. This enables you to quickly go deeper during a selection interview. More insight for the recruiter and the candidate.

Always give the gift of TalentGO!

With the TalentGO, you give your candidates more insight into their own talent
